

#STEPHING challenge

WEEK SEVEN WARDROBE & ACCESSORIES

Welcome to Week 7 of the Stepping Challenge! This week is wardrobe week, so let's get stuck into culling through everything in your wardrobe. We are also going through all your accessories and finding some storage for them to keep these areas tidy!

time to cull

CULLING QUESTIONS:

1. Have I worn this in the last 3-6 months?
2. If I saw this in a shop right now-would I buy it?
3. Is there a friend or family member that would get more use out of this?

Steph Pase

drawer organisation

I purchased some cheap sock, undies and bra organisers from eBay for storing these items!

shoes

Shoes can take up a lot of space so firstly after culling through them, start to think about some storage options.

SHOE RACK

Grab yourself a cheap shoe rack and simply put it at the bottom of your wardrobe and keep all your shoes on there!

SHOE BOXES

Instead of keeping all different shoe boxes grab some stackable shoe boxes from IKEA or the Reject Shop! Some of these you can even store 2 pairs of shoes per box!

Steph Pase

DOOR HANGERS

If your strapped for space you can purchase a shoe organiser than you can hang on the back of your door. Keeping everything off the floor and more space in your wardrobe.

Konmari fold

I'm sure you have heard of the Konmari fold by now, it's the method of vertical folding your clothes. I have been doing this for nearly 2 years now and after a couple of weeks I do it as fast as regular folding! I decided to start doing this so I could see all the clothes I own in each drawer without having the rummage through them.

Steph Pase

SO WHY DO THE KONMARI FOLD?

Firstly, you will be shocked at how much space you will save in your drawers! You can easily fit double the amount of clothes per drawer. Secondly you will be able to see at a glance everything in each drawer which means you will start getting more use out of what you do own! Thirdly this will mean you will spend LESS on getting new clothes because you're finally utilising everything you own. How many times have you bought a new t-shirt to realise after you already owned one similar? Stick with learning this fold, and I promise you will be converted! To learn how to do the fold simply hop onto Youtube and search konmari fold!

the "wear again hook"

This is a little hack I came up with when we moved into this home. I was sick of using the chair (or the floor) for the clothes I was going to wear again the next day. Just grab a removable hook, attach to the wall and then hang any clothes you plan to wear the next day. For clothes too dirty for the wardrobe but too clean for the wash! Perfect for school and work uniforms during the week! The hook will save your floors and chairs!

Steph Paise

accessories

There are so many ways you can store your accessories whether that be in boxes, drawers and cute jewellery stands! Here are the storage solutions I use and some products I recommend.

SCRUNCHIES

I store all my scrunches on a bracelet holder. I purchased this from ebay and can be bought at a low price.

JEWELLERY

I use an IKEA jewellery tray to store all my jewellery. An alternative to this is some wooden drawers from Kmart which you can label.

STORAGE BOXES

Now for miscellaneous accessories like belts, hair scarfs and even hats you can use some nice matching storage boxes. This will keep everything hidden and looking neat! I purchased mine from Kikki K but you can buy them for your local Dollar store!

I hope you enjoy organising your wardrobe and accessories this week! Don't forget to tag me and use the hashtag #stephingchallenge each week to win a $50 Little Label Co Voucher!

I can't wait to see your progress! Don't forget to tag me and use the hashtag #stephingchallenge on Instagram to potentially win a $50 Little Label Co voucher every week!

Steph Puse xx