WEEK EIGHT KIDS BEDROOM & WARDROBE

This week we will be tackling the kids bedroom and wardrobe! This one can be super overwhelming. Kids clothes, toys and keepsakes can be tricky to store so here is how I organise our kids wardrobes!

drawers

Drawers full of kid's clothes can easily become a mess. Not to mention kids' clothes can be annoying to sort. The best way to do this is using IKEA SKUBBS organisers and delegating drawers to different toys of kids clothes. For example, we have a drawer for;

- Undies/Socks and Misc
- Tops (T-shirts + Long sleeve)
- Bottoms (shorts + Pants)
- Pjs (winter + Summer _ baby sleeping bags)

This way you will always know where everything is kept. We fold the kids clothes using the Konmari method, which is vertical folding. This way I can see everything in each drawer and it saves so much space. If you want to learn this fold just search "Konmari folding kid's clothes" on Youtube!

shoes

Kids shoes can be one of the hardest items to keep tidy. There are a couple ways you can store your kids' shoes. For our girls I bought a cheap shoe rack and simply store them there at the bottom on the robe. If you are strapped for space you can buy a door hanger organiser and put the shoes in each section. This keeps them off the floor and out of the way.

storage tubs uses

You guys know how much I love a good tub! I have 4 baskets in each girl's wardrobe I have delegated for items that can be tricky to store. In ours we keep:

- Swimmers
- Sports (whatever hobbies they may be doing at the time e.g. dancing)
- Dress Ups

Some other items you could store in there are toys etc

keepsakes

This is a question I get asked weekly! Storing keepsakes can be hard to figure out how to organise and keep safe. I simply have two large tubs and then use drawstring bags for each occasion:

- Christenings
 - Birth
- First birthday
- First Xmas

For documents, birthday cards and photos you can store these in a suspension file tub. Check out the blog on how to store items in this here

The keepsake bags I purchased are from Belle & Co Living.

siblings sharing a closet

It's really important to have separate sections for each child to avoid any sibling fights. Treat it as if you were sharing a wardrobe with your partner. You can do this by simply section the space in half or using tubs and labels with each child's name, depending on your space.

I can't wait to see your progress for this week!
